

I do not support this proposal. This is another 'dumbing down" move. The power levels stated are not reasonably enforceable. This proposal eliminates incentive to further the art. The equipment proposal in this proceeding is also not reasonably enforceable. As I am a VE I was never polled by this group. This group claims to be a spokesman for the group but this is not the case.